"Small Potatoe Crop."—The following was published in yesterday's Herald, viz;—"The answer to the scurious attack made upon me by the repated proprietor of the MELODEON

will be published in next week's Clipper. A. M. Hernandez"—purporting to be an answer to an explanation made by us in the Herald of a violation of contract by the said H. We deny the charge, and only made the statement to satisfy the public that the transaction was fair upon our side, that the contract was signed, the money paid as per receipt published, and has never been returned. Now, we have considerable sympathy for Mr. H., believing that outside pressure operated upon him to the breaking of his contract. Also, that the card above published was written and forced upon him by similar influences. If not, certain disclosures relating to the engagement of a certain party for ten dollars per week, of which one-half was to be deducted from his salary, will foreibly remind him of the circumstance. The evidence is at his command, and can be submitted at any time. Why is it that his reply is not in the Herald, where all can see it? Our aim has always been, and still is, to protect performers in their interests and professions, and nothing in the advertisement to which he attempts to reply reflects in the slightest degree upon his reputation as a performer. We always avoid such issues. But if Mr. H. wishes to force the question upon us, we are prepared for the discussion, and with the collateral proofs of such statoments as we make. Our advice is for him to be cautious, and not be led into any indiscreet and premature notices by designing managera, which might possibly involve him in serious trouble. We have not reflected upon his professional ability, but only upon the foreity as a performer; for we do not war with artists, upon whome we are dependent for our success, but only upon those Foxey-mirrored specimens of humanity who prey upon others' brains. But then, if by reas
